I am available to meet at the United States Probation Office in the Howard Baker, Jr. US Courthouse on this coming Friday, January 12, 2018, at 1 p.m. I have a flexible schedule on January 12, and will be able to meet at another time if needed. Remember that Julie Norwood of the clerk's office has offered to meet us in the courtroom (no. 4) on January 12 at 1 p.m. to provide instruction concerning the equipment in the courtroom for handling documentary evidence.

Great afternoon April and Francis.

Thank you, Francis, for forwarding me the electronic services and notifications. I confirm I have received them.

April, below is the electronic receipt sent to Francis, of a previously unknown and unscheduled date for your records.

I remember at the last meeting you and I had on October 18, 2017, that you stated you are required to give me a drug test prior to/same day of any alleged court presentations per the order I authorized Shirley to issue, dated August 29, 2017.

I intend to be at your office for that test at 1:00 pm, or at a specific alternative time that Francis Lloyd confirms with us both that he is available prior to 2:00 pm, 1-12-18.

April, if there is a change in that requirement, or a scheduling conflict, I request that you let Francis and I know as soon as possible.

Francis, please confirm with April and I that 1:00 pm is good for you. If it is not, please confirm a time that is.

Warmest regards always.

Heather
